RESOLUTION NO. 217, S-2020

ADOPTING THE "BATING FILIPINO", THE NEW WAY OF GREETING ANOTHER PERSON AMID THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC.

WHEREAS, House Resolution No. 408 urges the government to promote placing one's palm at the center of the chest together with a slight nod as a customary Filipino gesture of goodwill. This is more commonly known as "Bating Filipino";

WHEREAS, the resolution was filed by Marikina City Representative Bayani F. Fernando in July 2019, and was officially adopted last February 2020;

WHEREAS, due to the COVID-19 pandemic, people are being reminded to always practice social distancing since the virus can be passed through droplets coming from an infected person;

WHEREAS, this greeting intends to replace the usual handshake to reduce transmission of the virus causing COVID-19 and that the new way of Filipino greeting shows sincerity and respect towards another person;

WHEREFORE, on motion of SBM Mac Dexter G. Malicdem, duly seconded by SBM Jay Mark Kevin D. Crisostomo, be it:

RESOLVED AS IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, to adopt the "Bating Filipino" in the Municipality of Lingayen as a new way of greeting to replace the conventional handshake and other traditional ways of greeting to ensure health safety amid the pandemic and to encourage government agencies to assist the dissemination and promotion of this new practice.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that copies of this resolution be furnished to the Municipal Mayor, LGU Chiefs of Offices, the Department of Education, the Department of the Interior and Local Government, and other agencies of government as well as Civil Society Organizations, including the private sector for their information and reference.

UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED. JUNE 29, 2020.
